Mattresses, Comforters, Pillows, etc.—Sale of—Labeling. (Chap. 192, Act Feb. 23, 1915.)

SECTION 1. Whoever manufactures for sale, offers for sale, sells, delivers or has in his possession with intent to sell or deliver, any mattress, comfort, pillow, or other article of bed clothing, which contains a covered filling, which is not properly branded or labeled, or whoever uses, either in whole or in part, in the manufacture of mattresses, comforters, pillows, or other articles of bed clothing which contain a covered filling, any cotton or other material which has been used, or has formed a part of any mattress, pillow, or bed used in or about any public or private hospital, or on or about any person having infectious or contagious disease; or whoever dealing in mattresses, comforters, pillows, or other article of bed clothing which contain a covered filling has any such article of personal property in his possession for the purpose of sale, or offers it for sale without a brand or label as herein provided, or removes, conceals, or defaces the brand or label thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $500, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting any of the various State institutions of this State from remaking any of its own mattresses or other articles of bed clothing, provided the same are properly fumigated or sterilized: And provided further, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed as prohibiting the sale of secondhand mattresses, or other articles of bed clothing, without the use of such label, if such mattress or other article of bed clothing has not been remade for the purpose of sale, or if the same is labeled and sold as a secondhand article.

SEC. 2. The brand or label shall contain in plain print, in the English language, a statement of the material used in the manufacture of such mattress, comforter, pillow, or other article of bed clothing, whether such article of personal property is in whole or in part new or secondhand, and the quantity of new and secondhand materials used, and the qualities of the materials used. Such brand or label shall be in the shape of a paper or cloth tag, to be sewed or otherwise securely attached to each article.

SEC. 3. Any mattress within the meaning of this act shall be defined as being a quilted pad stuffed with hair, wool, or other soft material to be used on a bed for sleeping or reclining purposes; and any comforter within the meaning of this act shall be defined as being any bedspread filled with cotton, wool, or down, or any other soft filling.

SEC. 4. Whenever any State or county health board, or any other public officer, shall have reason or cause to believe that any of the provisions of this act are being, or have been, violated, such board, or member thereof, or any public officer, shall advise the attorney general of the State, and the district attorney of the county where such violation has taken place, giving his information in support of such belief; and it shall be the duty of the attorney general and of the district attorneys of any county in which a violation occurs, to forthwith institute the proper legal proceedings for the enforcement of the provisions of this section, and for the punishment of the violation thereof.

UTAH.Poisons and Drugs—Possession, Sale, and Dispensing—Labeling. Opium Pipes—Possession of. (Chap. 66, Act Mar. 17, 1915.)

SEC. 1. Selling poisons.—It shall be unlawful for any person to vend, sell, give away, or furnish, either directly or indirectly, any poisons enumerated in schedules A and B in section 7 of this act as hereinafter set forth, without labeling the package, box, bottle, or paper in which said poison is contained with the name of the article, the word "poison," and the name and place of business of the person furnishing the same.
